

Where will your future success come from?

Think about your past experiences. What have you learned from them? Answer the questions on the left and then visualise what the future can be and answer the questions on the right.

Where have you been successful in the past?	How can you expand upon these successes?
What were your past mistakes?	What have you learned from these mistakes?
What ideas have had that you have not acted on?	Which of these ideas will you go forward with and why?
